There was once a young man on Kauai, Who tried like a mynah to fly, Till one day on a trip, His wings they did slip, And now he is soaring on high.

A Jap in a hurry one day, Jumped off from the car the wrong way, Now he's riding on cars, That don't give any jars, And where passengers don't have to pay.

A hubby was in a great wrath, 'Cause the plumbers had torn off a lath, The next time he'll know, The right place to go, For good plumbing, and that is to Bath.
